

Nuggets Night is a fundraising event that pays tribute to the underground music of the 1960s for the benefit of music related non-profits of Portland, Oregon. Since 2007 we have raised money for The Portland School of Rock, Rock and Roll Camp For Girls, The Jeremy Wilson Foundation, The Oregon Music Hall of Fame Scholarship Fund, KISN 95.1 FM, and more.

Nuggets Night has chosen Queer Rock Camp Portland as our 2018 beneficiary. The event will be held June 1 and 2 at The Mission Theater, featuring Portland musicians and showcasing performers from the 1960s. In order to maximize our donation power, we rely on sponsors to help with the expense of bringing in these legendary acts and the upfront costs of throwing the grooviest event of the year.

You can help!

Many headlining acts charge upwards of $10,000 plus airfare, room, ground transportation, and meals as part of their contracts. The headliners we approach may request a less extensive retainer, but will still need a guarantee. This cuts deeply into our final donations and that is why we ask for your help.

We need your support to bring pioneering bands to Nuggets Night.

Full history of past shows and beneficiaries can be found at www.nuggetsnight.com
